Fireworks Prohibited in City of Buda

The City of Buda wanted to remind citizens that fireworks are prohibited in and around Buda.

Fireworks cannot be used/detonated in the city limits or within 5,000 feet of city limits (Extraterritorial Jurisdiction).

Violation of the fireworks ordinance carries a fine not to exceed $500, with each occurrence being a separate violation.

For more information you can go to our code of ordinances on our website at www.ci.buda.tx.us.

BUDA, TEXAS – The City of Buda reminds citizens and visitors that fireworks are prohibited in Buda and its extraterritorial jurisdiction (ETJ). Cooperation with the ordinance helps to ensure safety of people and property during the New Year holidays.

The City of Buda is home to about 18,000 residents and has earned designations as a “Texas Main Street City,” “Tree City USA,” “Bee City Affiliate” and “Platinum-Level Scenic City.” Buda is situated along the Interstate 35 corridor in Hays County, has 14 parks and a historic downtown district where residents and visitors alike can shop, dine, relax, and breathe easy here.
